Treasurer's Report

Membership

At the end of June, 2020 CMA's membership totaled 301 (189 professional, 83 student, 3 life members), an increase of 9% from June of the previous year.

CMA Membership
10/2011	374
9/2012	347
9/2013	337
9/2014	296
9/2015	345
9/2016	289
9/2017	282
9/2018	245
6/2019	274
6/2020	301

However, due to the pandemic and the cancellation of the in-person AAA meetings by the end of July our membership had fallen to 265, by the end of August to 220 and then by September 30, 2020 we had increased a bit to 223 members (132 professionals, 57 students, 3 life, 26 retired, 4 sustaining, 1 associate).

On May 15, 2020, CMA donated $2000.00 to the AAA Covid-19 Emergency Grant Fund, which provided assistance to our more financially vulnerable members.

General Finances

As of September 30, 2020 our Net Assets were $60,208.40 a significant decrease from last year due to us contributing $22,600 to the CMA Student Travel awards quasi-endowment (QE502) in March 2020 so we would be earning $2000/year to give two student travel grants of $1000 each per year.

As we did not award student travel grants this year, we saved $2000 in 2020 and we did not award either a Michael Ames or a Distinguished Service award so we saved $500 that would have gone towards awardee recognition.

On September 30, 2020 the Ames/Distinguished Service quasi-endowment was worth $12,496.89 (up $364.74 from last year) and the Student Travel Award quasi-endowment was worth $51,474.05 (up $23,968.88 from last year).

Museum Anthropology Journal

The editorial budget for Museum Anthropology in 2020 was $15,420, an increase from the year before in order to provide financial support to our new editors Emily Stokes-Rees and Phaedra Livingstone, who have just completed their first year as editors and were not getting in-kind or financial support from their respective universities. The 2021 journal budget is only $10,400 as submitted by our editors.
