

Council for Museum Anthropology
Treasurer's Report
10/18/21

Membership

At the end of September 2021 CMA's membership totaled 140 (35 professional, 85 students, 16 retired, 4 sustaining) up from March 2021's 124 numbers but decidedly down from our decade average of 288.

CMA Membership
10/2011	374
9/2012	347
9/2013	337
9/2014	296
9/2015	345
9/2016	289
9/2017	282
9/2018	245
6/2019	274
6/2020	301
9/2020	223
3/2021	124
9/2021	140

This is clearly due to the pandemic, the cancelling of the 2020 conference in St. Louis and the confusion about the hybrid AAAs in Baltimore this year. On a positive note, you can see the leap in student numbers (from 57 last year to 85 this year, which I think probably has to do with Kristin Otto's mentoring workshops even though it was not a requirement for students to be either AAA or CMA members in order to participate!

General Finances

On September 30, 2021 our Net Assets were $77,695.07

This is up from this time last year when we had $60,204.40.

On September 30, 2021, the CMA Student Travel Awards quasi-endowment (QE502) was worth $53,571.19 earning us $1,580.68 this year (up from 2020's value of $51,474.05).

On September 30, 2021 the CMA Ames/Distinguished Service quasi-endowment (QE501) was worth $13,006.04 earning us $383.76 this year (up from 2020's value of $12,496.89.)

Museum Anthropology Journal

The editorial budget for Museum Anthropology in 2021 was $10,400, the majority went unspent by editor Dr. Phaedra Livingstone. The 2022 journal budget is $15,700 bulked up to support our incoming editor Dr. Hannah Turner (UBC).

--Respectfully submitted by Jennifer Kramer, CMA Treasurer